Arrival to Patagonia

Day 1: Arrival at Punta Arena + set up + Bike City tour and Single Track Route.

In our first day, our guides will be waiting for you at your arrival to Punta Arenas airport. From there we will drive to our Hostel in a very nice area of this city. After going into our rooms, we will have time to mount and check our bikes in our workshop. If is necessary, Punta Arenas give us the chance to visits a very good MTB store. During the afternoon, we have planned a bike ride to visit the most interesting points in the city of Punta Arenas. To understand the climate and the different grounds that this city offers us, we will ride a single track in a park in the center of the city. After this experience, we get back to the hostel and after a warm shower, we drive to one of our selected restaurants in town, for our welcome dinner.

Day 2: Punta Arenas full Day Ride. Araña - Reserva Forestal - Andino

This is our first full day of mountain biking. During the morning we will be riding immersed in a nice Patagonian forest. We will stop in at least 2 spots to appreciate el Punta Arenas from different perspectives and thus observe the Estrecho de Magallanes and Tierra del Fuego in all its splendor. After enjoying a lunch box, we will continue our ride on the way to the local Ski Center. Here we will enjoy riding the different trails that we have construct there during the last years. In the afternoon we get back to our hostel and we prepare to visit our favorite restaurant to taste a selection of a local food and beers. Later, back in the hostel we finished the day with a briefing for the next riding day.
